

AFTER ACTION REPORT: 21 APRIL 2007, A DAY ABOARD USCGC KATHERINE WALKER

On a beautiful Spring day, approximately 60 Navy Leaguers embarked on USCGC KATHERINE WALKER (WLM 552) to observe her operations and to show their support for the men and women who perform the arduous tasks of the Coast Guard on a daily basis. Below: The cutter arrives to embark her visitors on the East River. (Photo: R.H. Wagner).

Above: KATHERINE WALKER proceeded down the East River past Governors Island out to the Veranzano Bridge and returned passing USS INTREPID (CV 11) in drydock in Bayonne and the Statue of Liberty. Below: Commanding Officer Amy Florention with Council Executive Director Rick Kenney and Log Editor Rich Wagner. (Photos: Joseph Weiss).

Above: The ship's company was mustered on the buoy deck for the presentation of commendations near the Statue of Liberty. Below: KATHERINE WALKER disembarked the Navy Leaguers near the Water Club on the East River.

