FE Notes:

Good day. I'd like to thank the occupants of Building 4 for their patience with the on-going mechanical system upgrade. This project's purpose is to ensure all critical equipment rooms truly do receive the appropriate cooling. Funds were unexpectedly made available for this project, so the planning and execution were phases were shortened considerably. Hopefully this project will provide all of you with a more effective work environment.

The City of Seattle Engineer will be speaking at the next PNWOA lunch discussing the Alaskan Way Viaduct and other major city construction projects. The City has an extraordinary web-site if you google city of Seattle Alaskan Way Viaduct.

LCDR Pete Carroll
